THE AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION There is to be a meeting of the Agri. cultural Association to-morrow, at the Hall of the Chamber of Commerce, for the purpose of a thorough reorganization, and election of officers for the ensuing year. A proposition will be made, and we hope carried out, that the Associstion imitate the example of that of St. Louis (recently united with the Racing Association of that city) by a combination with the Memphis Racing Association, whose sole object being the encouragement of stock-raising, makes a complete merging of the two bodies act stances eminently proper. We trust the combination may be effected. It is in the interest of Memphis that both societies exist. As one Association they can do more for themselves and the city than they ever can hope to aparl. A WORD TO THE DEMOCRACY. Our adversaries claim to have gained advantages over the Democracy in the October elections, and we understand there are a few faint-hearted Democrats, or those naturally less hopeful than their fellows, who, perhaps unconsciously to themselves, have conceded these advantages and thereupon relaxed their endeavors. THE REPORTED ASSASSINATIONS IN during the past six or seven years, Govhe St. Louis Republican says the reported assassination of Congressman were, in their own interests, in opposi tion to the Radical organization of Atkaness, and were engaged in arraying the negroes against their party with a view to their own election, when they met their fate. Under these circumstances their conduct could not otherwise be construed than as favoring the Democratic cause, and as, indeed, me necessary to its success than any of outside influence that could be exerted in its favor. As the dispatch says: "The Democrats had everything to hope from the defection of BROOKS and HINDS, Radicalism. It was the interest of the Democracy to preserve their lives. It was the interest of RICE & Co. to put them out of the way. If they were cilled the Democrats would suffer, while the Radicals would gain.
